■ We Gather

*You are invited to stand as you are able in body and spirit.

OPENING VOLUNTARY

Fantasia super: Christ lag in Todesbanden BWV 695

J. S. Bach (1686-1750)

This piece is based off of the chorale “Christ Jesus Lay in Death’s Strong Bands,” found in the UMC Hymnal at #319. The tune may sound minor, but given its triumphant Easter associations, one can think of this setting as subdued joy. Texturally, the piece is a two-part invention between the soprano and bass voices, and the chorale melody eventually appears in between the various imitations.

WORDS OF WELCOME

The Rev. Brent Huckaby

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Rev. Huckaby

One: Through every age and in every place, the Christ, in whose name we gather, offers a simple, challenging invitation, “Come follow me.”

All: And where is it that we go with Christ?

One: Christ leads us among enemies and strangers and reveals all persons as potential friends.

All: Christ leads us into life’s uncharted places where the Word and will of God are our only true guides.

One: Christ leads us to love ourselves, that grace might become real.

All: And Christ leads us to the dead-end of the cross, only to reveal a way to new life. We come to worship the Christ who leads. May we find wisdom and courage to follow.

■ We Hear God's Word

THE FIRST LESSON

Psalm 150

REFRAIN:

<sup>1</sup> O praise God in his holiness, praise him in the firmament of his power. <sup>2</sup> Praise him in his noble acts, praise him according to his excellent greatness. <sup>3</sup> Praise him in the sound of the trumpet, praise him upon the lute and harp. <sup>4</sup> Praise him in the cymbals and dances, praise him upon the strings and pipe. <sup>5</sup> Praise him upon the well-tuned cymbals, praise him upon the loud cymbals. <sup>6</sup> Let every thing that hath breath, praise the Lord.

REFRAIN

God on a cross; who would have thought it? This place looks nothing like Eden. But there is no death here in the ruins; this is the land of the breathing. Out past the fear, doubt becomes wonder, rivers appear and I'm going under, I'm going under! Here in the wild, my hands are empty and yet I've had all I needed. There is no drought here in the desert I've found a water that's living. Evergreen, evergreen. The tree of life is evergreen.

*THE GOSPEL LESSON
John 20:19-31

<sup>19</sup> When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." <sup>20</sup> After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. <sup>21</sup> Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." <sup>22</sup> When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup> If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." <sup>24</sup> But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup> So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

<sup>26</sup> A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." <sup>27</sup> Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." <sup>28</sup> Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" <sup>29</sup> Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." <sup>30</sup> Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. <sup>31</sup> But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

May God bless the reading of the Word.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

The Rev. Connor Bell
